René Kling

Liberal for Denison

“René Kling has worked extensively in the corporate sector and has also run a small business for over 12 years. He understands how important it is that we cut unnecessary red and Green tape that is hampering the ability of business to grow and create more jobs. René is just the person to help us put back up the ‘open for business’ sign in Tasmania”.

Tasmanian Liberal Leader

The Liberals' Plan

Change
for a brighter
future

Only the Liberals have a plan to create jobs and grow the economy.

We will:

- Provide strong and stable government;
- Build a modern economy to create jobs;
- Cut red and Green tape to encourage investment;
- Fix the budget; and
- Rebuild essential services.

The only way to deliver our plan for jobs and growth, and the strong majority government Tasmania needs, is to vote Liberal.

A vote for Labor, the Greens, or any other minor party is a vote to keep the Labor-Green minority government in power.

About René Kling

René was born in the Netherlands, migrated to Australia with his family at the age of 11, and became an Australian citizen at 16. After leaving school at Year 10 and working in the retail industry, René joined the RAAF at the age of 19, serving throughout Australia for the following nine years.

Whilst stationed in Hobart with the RAAF, René commenced to further his education, which led to university studies. René then worked for a variety of public and private organisations at all levels, gaining valuable corporate experience in a wide range of industries. In 2001, René started his own Consulting and Training business, undertaking engagements throughout Australia.

Despite his humble beginnings, René's qualifications include a Master of Business in Logistics Management, an MBA, a Master of eCommerce, and a Master of Laws in Public Procurement Law and Policy. He is now partway through completing a Master of History.

To relax, René loves music and has been known to sing a few Elvis songs when the opportunity arises. René is married with five sons, three of whom also reside in Hobart.

René has been a life-long supporter of the Liberal Party, having particular interests in Small Business, Education, Tourism and the Arts.
